CLASSIC JAPANESE EXPRESSION FROM NIKKA

Super Nikka is one of Nikka's classic bottlings in Japan and has been a top seller since its introduction in 1962. Inspired by the late wife of Nikka's founder, Masataka Taketsureu. Super Nikka is a blended whisky that utilises grain whiskies from Nikka's famous Coffey stills and malt whiskies predominantly from Yoichi and Miyagikyo. It provides a subtle harmony of fruit with light peat and sherry notes.

FRUITY & RICH WITH SUBTLE PEAT

This expertly blended whisky provides a light, stone fruit character with hints of orange peel and marzipan along with subtle peaty flavours and rich sherry notes.

BEST ENJOYED NEAT OR IN A CLASSIC HIGHBALL

Super Nikka is a fruity and complex whisky that is best enjoyed neat or served long over ice, topped up with soda.

IN HONOUR OF NIKKA'S FOUNDER'S WIFE, RITA

Super Nikka was created in honour of Masataka Taketsuru's Scottish wife, Rita, who passed away in 1961. This whisky was supposed to reflect her character and be reminiscent of the whiskies that Rita would have tasted growing up in Scotland in the early 20th century.

THE FATHER OF JAPANESE WHISKY

Nikka was founded in 1934 by Masataka Taketsuru, often referred to as "The Father of Japanese Whisky". Taketsuru travelled to Scotland in 1918 to learn the art of whisky-making.
