SIPPING RUM FROM THE SEYCHELLES WITH A TOUCH OF THE CARIBBEAN

Takamaka Pti Lakaz is an enticing sipping rum, made up of tropically aged cane and molasses rums in a variety of French Oak and ex-Port & Bourbon Casks, including a touch of Barbados rum from the Foursquare distillery.

NOTES OF RICH STONE FRUIT, CACAO, AND SPICE

Takamaka Pti Lakaz is full of rich fruit flavours such as dried apricot, with notes of star anise and dried cacao beans building to a complex finish full of dry spice.

THE ST ANDRÉ SERIES

The St André Series is a collection of rums that really showcase what Takamaka are about as distillers and blenders. They have been crafted to showcase the brand's rich heritage and Creole traditions, whilst simultaneously pushing the boundaries of conventional rum making.

THE PINNACLE OF SEYCHELLES RUM MAKING

Takamaka Pti Lakaz is a showcase of Takamaka's rum making prowess. Traditional pot distilled Seychelles cane rum from three different barrels - including one ex ruby port and two French oak casks - is blended with column distilled molasses rum that's been rested for three years in ex-bourbon casks, as well as an eight-year-old Bajan Foursquare molasses rum.

LOCAL FAMILY-OWNED RUM

Takamaka was founded over 20 years ago by brothers Bernard & Richard d'Offay, with a shared dream to produce a rum that celebrates the character and people of their beautiful home of the Seychelles, and put them in the same conversation as other legendary rum producing islands around the globe.

BEST ENJOYED NEAT

Rich and decadent, Takamaka Pti Lakaz is best enjoyed neat or over rocks in a tumbler.
