'OLD TOM' GIN FROM IRELAND

A delicious interpretation of the traditionally sweetened 'Old Tom' style of gin, but instead of using sugar, it is rested in Pedro Ximenez Sherry casks and blended with a small amount of PX.

FIG, ORANGE AND TOFFEE NOTES

Boatyard Old Tom has notes of fig, raisin, orange and candied fruit, with a toffee finish. The natural sweetness and richness of the PX sherry adds a velvety smooth mouth-feel.

AWARD WINNING, FAMILY-RUN DISTILLERY

Boatyard is an award-winning distillery located inside an old boatyard on the banks of Lough Erne. It is the first legal distillery built in County Fermanagh in 130 years.

IRELAND'S FIRST OLD TOM

Boatyard was the first Irish distillery to produce an Old Tom style gin, made using organic wheat spirit and botanicals such as wild sweet gale from the family farm.

B-CORPORATION CERTIFICATION

Its ethical, sustainable and environmental practices earned Boatyard the B Corp status in 2023. It is the first distillery on the island of Ireland to receive the recognition, receiving a score of 92 points (80 points is the minimum required for a pass).

PERFECT WITH GINGER ALE OR IN COCKTAILS

Boatyard Old Tom Gin is best enjoyed mixed with ginger ale and garnished with a slice of fresh apple. It also makes a wonderful Martinez cocktail.
