COMPLEX SIPPING RUM FROM THE SEYCHELLES

The definition of premium Seychelles rum, Takamaka Grankaz is a silky sipping rum that showcases the ageing and blending craftsmanship of the brand.

SILKY AND SMOOTH WITH NOTES OF STEWED FRUIT

This is a harmonious blend of traditional pot still Seychelles cane rums aged in French oak, a three-year-old ex-bourbon molasses rum, and an eight-year-old Bajan Foursquare molasses rum. The blend undergoes a final pre-bottling filtration, allowing the flavours to fully express their aromatic potential, even at final bottling strength.

THE ST ANDRÉ SERIES

The St André Series is a collection of rums that really showcase what Takamaka are about as distillers and blenders. They have been crafted to showcase the brand's rich heritage and Creole traditions, whilst simultaneously pushing the boundaries of conventional rum making.

LOCAL FAMILY-OWNED RUM

Takamaka was founded over 20 years ago by brothers Bernard & Richard d'Offay, with a shared dream to produce a rum that celebrates the character and people of their beautiful home of the Seychelles, and put them in the same conversation as other legendary rum producing islands around the globe.

BEST ENJOYED NEAT

Takamaka Grankaz is best enjoyed neat or over rocks in a tumbler to appreciate the complex flavours and silky texture.
