BLACK TOT MASTER BLENDER'S RESERVE

2022 LIMITED EDITION TRADITIONAL BLENDED RUM

70CL | 54.5%

TRULY UNIQUE RUM BLEND

Black Tot Master Blender's Reserve resurrects the art of rum blending pioneered by the British Royal Navy. The 2022 edition brings together blended rums from Jamaica, Guyana, Barbados and Trinidad alongside a reserve of rum kept back from last year's Master Blender's 2021 release. Each component has been crafted from a range of aged rums from each country, exploring the individual layers of flavour and textures from the different marques and maturation cycles.

RICH AND DECADENT

Black Tot Master Blender's Reserve is expertly blended to create a full-bodied, rich and balanced rum where each sip releases aromas of baked bananas, chocolate, tobacco and leather.

MARRYING TRADITION & MODERNITY

The rum is composed of last year's Master Blenders Reserve 2021 which has been ageing in sherry casks since last year's Black Tot Day, four unique country blends from the finest Caribbean distilleries and a small amount of the original Royal Navy flagons - the rum blended and held in wooden vats by the Royal Navy until July 31st, 1970. This creates a sipping rum with layers of depth and complexity.

THE ART OF NAVY RUM BLENDING

Black Tot embraces the tradition of multi-country blending pioneered by the Royal Navy - a technique that gives the rum nuance and depth. Meanwhile, the brand's name pays tribute to Black Tot Day (31st July 1970), when the Navy ended its centuries-old practice of handing out daily rum rations, or tots, to sailors.

ULTIMATE TRANSPARENCY

Black Tot Master Blender's Reserve is a beautiful homage to some of the cornerstones of the Navy blend, showcasing a sophisticated balance of flavours and origins - from Guyana, Jamaica, Barbados and Trinidad - with all the elements displayed clearly and celebrated on the label.

BEST ENJOYED NEAT

This is a rum to be savoured neat or add a couple of drops of water to open up the complex flavours.
