A VIBRANT BLEND OF INDIAN AND CARIBBEAN RUM

Amrut Two Indies is an elegant and rich rum made from the blending of rums from the East and West Indies. Two Indies uses rum distilled and aged at the Amrut distillery in Karnataka, India, and also the finest rums sourced from the Caribbean Indies - specifically Jamaica, Guyana and Barbados.

RICH TROPICAL FRUIT NOTES WITH SPICE AND LIQUORICE

Amrut Two Indies Rum has notes of rich tropical fruit - pineapple, mango and guava, with a hint of persimmon, lemon and golden apple. This then gives way to powerful clove and cinnamon spices before finishing on notes of liquorice and subtle smoke.

▽ BEST ENJOYED NEAT OR IN CLASSIC RUM COCKTAILS

Amrut Two Indies rum is perfect enjoyed neat or on the rocks to showcase all the rich tropical fruit and heady spice notes. However, it is equally at home in classic rum cocktails like the Mai Tai.

FAMILY OWNED AND OPERATED IN BANGALORE

Amrut was set up in Bangalore in 1948, one year after the Indian Independence, by the Jagdale family and is still owned and operated by them today. Rum has been part of Amrut's history since the beginning; before producing award-winning single malt whiskies, Amrut focused on producing spirits from local fruits and sugar cane.
