ICONIC WHISKY FROM JAPAN

THE FATHER OF JAPANESE WHISKY

Nikka was founded in 1934 by Masataka Taketsuru, who is often referred to as “The Father of Japanese Whisky”. Taketsuru travelled to Scotland in 1918 to learn the art of whisky-making.

BLENDING TRADITION & INNOVATION

Returning to Japan in 1920 with his new Scottish wife Rita, Taketsuru also brought back traditional Scottish production techniques which he blended with Japanese precise and attention to detail to create Nikka.

TWO DISTILLERIES, ONE AIM

Taketsuru’s passion was whisky blending, and he built the Nikka company’s two distilleries, Yoichi and Miyagikyo, to make a wide variety of malt and grain whiskies for making elegant and complex blends.

NIKKA FROM THE BARREL

50CL | 51.4%

AWARD-WINNING, ICONIC BLENDED WHISKY FROM JAPAN

Nikka From the Barrel is an award-winning blended whisky, containing approximately 60% grain whisky and 40% malt whiskies, most of which come from Nikka's distilleries - Miyagikyo and Yoichi.

FRUITY, COMPLEX AND POWERFUL

Nikka From the Barrel has layers of flavour from the combination of whiskies with notes of honey, tropical and stone fruits, delicate smoke, winter spices and coconut, all perfectly balanced.

BEST ENJOYED NEAT

Best served neat or over ice to showcase the full complexities of the liquid.

'FROM THE BARREL'

The components are aged for an average of 10 years in a variety of cask-types, married for 3-6 months in a barrel and bottled 'from the barrel' at 51.4% ABV.

THE FATHER OF JAPANESE WHISKY

Nikka was founded in 1934 by Masataka Taketsuru, often referred to as "The Father of Japanese Whisky". Taketsuru travelled to Scotland in 1918 to learn the art of whisky-making.

NIKKA DAYS

70CL | 40%

EASY-DRINKING BLENDED WHISKY FROM JAPAN

Nikka Days is the perfect introduction to the world of Nikka whisky. The whisky is a blend of grains and single malts, and offers a smooth and delicate tasting experience.

FRUIT AND FLORAL NOTES

It has a rich, creamy texture and bright and fruity nose with notes of apple, melon, flowers, vanilla, spice, citrus, liquorice and delicate smoke.

DESIGNED FOR MIXING

Nikka Days shines in a variety of serves such as The Mizuwari or Highball: 50ml Nikka Days topped up with soda water in a highball glass.

FROM THE ICONIC NIKKA WHISKY HOUSE

Nikka was founded in 1934 by Masataka Taketsuru, often referred to as “The Father of Japanese Whisky”. Taketsuru travelled to Scotland in 1918 to learn the art of whisky-making.

SCOTTISH TRADITION & JAPANESE PRECISION

Returning to Japan in 1920 with his new Scottish wife Rita, Taketsurubrought back traditional Scotch production techniques which he blended with Japanese attention to detail to create Nikka.

NIKKA COFFEY GRAIN

70CL | 45%

UNIQUE JAPANESE GRAIN WHISKY

A whisky aged in used American oak casks, Nikka Coffey Grain is made predominantly from corn with a touch of malted barley: two key components of its very smooth character.

NOTES OF TROPICAL FRUITS & TOFFEE POPCORN

Nikka Coffey Grain has notes of coconut, butter, tropical fruits, toffee popcorn, toasted bread and citrus. It forms an essential part of several of Nikka's blends as a flavoursome backbone.

NIKKA'S COFFEY, NOT COFFEE, DISTILLATION

Nikka Coffey Grain is distilled in a Coffey still, patented by Aeneas Coffey in the 1830s, it produces a spirit of texture and quality that is rarely seen in grain whiskies.

THE FATHER OF JAPANESE WHISKY

Nikka was founded in 1934 by Masataka Taketsuru, often referred to as "The Father of Japanese Whisky". Taketsuru travelled to Scotland in 1918 to learn the art of whisky-making.

A VERSATILE WHISKY IDEAL FOR SIPPING OR MIXING

Superb sipped neat or in a Nikka Manhattan: 60ml Nikka Coffey Grain Whisky, 15ml Dry Vermouth, 15ml Sweet Vermouth, 2 dashes of bitters.

NIKKA COFFEY MALT

70CL | 45%

UNIQUE GRAIN WHISKY FROM JAPAN, MADE FROM 100% MALTED BARLEY

Nikka Coffey Malt is made from 100% malted barley. However, it's distilled in a Coffey still rather than a pot still – categorising it as a 'grain whisky' not 'single malt'.

NOTES OF DARK CHOCOLATE, ORANGE ZEST & VANILLA

Tasting notes reveal aromas of dark chocolate, Maltesers, banoffee pie, mocha, marmalade and gentle spice all balanced on the palate in this smooth and elegant whisky.

ENJOY NEAT OR IN A MIXED DRINK

Nikka Coffey Malt is best enjoyed neat but it can also be mixed into cocktails like an Espresso Martini, Manhattan or topped up with soda.

NIKKA'S COFFEY, NOT COFFEE, DISTILLATION

Nikka Coffey Grain is distilled in a Coffey still, patented by Aeneas Coffey in the 1830s, it produces a spirit of quality that is rarely seen in grain whiskies.

THE FATHER OF JAPANESE WHISKY

Nikka was founded in 1934 by Masataka Taketsuru, often referred to as "The Father of Japanese Whisky". Taketsuru travelled to Scotland in 1918 to learn the art of whisky-making.

NIKKA COFFEY GIN

70CL | 47% | £45.50

UNIQUE JAPANESE GIN MADE WITH JAPANESE CITRUS

Coffey Gin is a unique Japanese gin that utilises Nikka's whisky making prowess and heritage Coffey Stills. Top-quality botanicals, including unusual Japanese citrus fruits, give Nikka gin a bright flavour.

RICH TEXTURE WITH ZESTY AND FRESH CITRUS NOTES

Japanese citrus botanicals including yuzu, kabosu, amanatsu, shequesar and Sansho pepper alongside traditional ones such as coriander seed and juniper lift the spirit with notes of fresh citrus and spice.

THE SONIC

A Tokyo-style twist on a G&T is a Sonic; Coffey Gin mixed with half soda and half tonic, minimising sweetness from the tonic and letting the gin's flavours shine.

A GIN MADE USING NIKKA'S WHISKY-MAKING EXPERTISE

Nikka, founded in 1934 by Masataka Taketsuru, honed his craft whilst in Scotland in 1918-1920. Taketsuru brought back traditional production techniques which he blended with Japanese precision to create Nikka.

ENJOY NEAT OR IN A MIXED DRINK

Nikka Coffey Gin is great neat or on the rocks to showcase its freshness and sippable texture or tastes delicious in a Gin and Tonic.

NIKKA COFFEY VODKA

70CL | 40% | £40.50

UNIQUE JAPANESE VODKA MADE FROM MALTED BARLEY AND CORN

Made from malted barley and corn and distilled in a Heritage Coffey still, utilising Nikka's whisky-making expertise. This unique method results in extraordinary flavours.

LUXURIOUS WITH NOTES OF BISCUIT AND CITRUS

Notes of lemon zest, grapefruit peel and a buttery texture from the corn. The barley contributes a savoury cereal and pepper note. Coffey still distillation ensures a silky clean finish.

VERSATILE COCKTAIL INGREDIENT

Brilliant in classic vodka cocktails such as a Martini, Bloody Mary or Espresso Martini.

A VODKA USING NIKKA'S WHISKY-MAKING EXPERTISE

Nikka, founded in 1934 by Masataka Taketsuru, honed his craft whilst in Scotland in 1918-1920. Taketsuru brought back traditional production techniques which he blended with Japanese precision to create Nikka.

ENJOY NEAT OR IN A MIXED DRINK

Nikka Coffey Vodka is ideal neat or on the rocks to fully experience its rich texture and complex yet clean flavours.

NIKKA MIYAGIKYO SINGLE MALT

70CL | 45%

FRUITY AND ELEGANT JAPANESE SINGLE MALTWHISKY

Nikka Miyagikyo Single Malt is a complex, fruity and soft single malt whisky made at the Miyagikyo distillery near Sendai on Japan's main island of Honshu.

GRASSY NOTES, CANDIED CITRUS PEEL AND SPICES WITH A RICH SHERRY INFLUENCE

Made from unpeated and lightly peated barley which gives a complex and delicate whisky with notes of freshly cut grass, nuts, citrus peel and the merest wisp of smoke.

THE FATHER OF JAPANESE WHISKY

Nikka was founded in 1934 by Masataka Taketsuru, often referred to as "The Father of Japanese Whisky". Taketsuru travelled to Scotland in 1918 to learn the art of whisky-making.

MODERN AND INNOVATIVE DISTILLERY

Miyagikyo opened in 1969 after Taketsuru had been making whisky at Yoichi distillery for 35 years, built with modern equipment and designed to produce a fruity alternative to Yoichi's coastal flavours.

BEST ENJOYED NEAT OR ON THE ROCKS

Best enjoyed neat or on the rocks to experience the full complexity of the spirit. Bottled at 45%, it is smooth enough to not need water when sipping.

NIKKA YOICHI SINGLE MALT

70CL | 45%

BOLD, RICH AND COASTAL JAPANESE SINGLE MALT WHISKY

A rich, coastal single malt made at the Yoichi distillery in Hokkaido, Japan. The distillery is situated at the mouth of the Yoichi river and is named after its water source.

FULL-BODIED AND SMOOTH WITH NOTES OF PEAT, APPLE AND SPICES

Nikka Yoichi Single Malt is made predominantly from peated barley which gives soft smoke and oily richness. The sea air surrounding the casks gives a maritime character to this whisky.

THE FATHER OF JAPANESE WHISKY

Nikka was founded in 1934 by Masataka Taketsuru, often referred to as "The Father of Japanese Whisky". Taketsuru travelled to Scotland in 1918 to learn the art of whisky-making.

AWARD-WINNING SINGLE MALT

Single Malt from Yoichi was the first Japanese whisky to win 'Best Single Malt in the World' in 2001, an honour it has won twice.

BEST ENJOYED NEAT OR ON THE ROCKS

Yoichi Single Malt is best enjoyed neat or on the rocks to allow the earthy smoke and candied citrus notes to shine.

NIKKA TAKETSURU PURE MALT

70CL | 43%

JAPANESE WHISKY WITH CAPTIVATING FRESHNESS

A bright, complex and elegant blended malt whisky from Japan. This whisky is made from a combination of different casks from Nikka's Yoichi and Miyagikyo single malt distilleries and balances fruitiness from sherry cask aging with maritime flavours from Yoichi.

CITRUS AND PEAT AROMAS WITH NOTES OF DARK CHOCOLATE AND RICH SMOKE

Made from a combination of Miyagikyo single malts which tend to have fruity, grassy and honeyed notes along with Yoichi single malts which lean towards nutty, smoky and salty flavours. Combined together, these whiskies give Taketsuru Pure Malt fruity citrus and pear notes along with darky chocolate and rich, maritime smoke.

THE FATHER OF JAPANESE WHISKY

Nikka was founded in 1934 by Masataka Taketsuru, often referred to as "The Father of Japanese Whisky". Taketsuru travelled to Scotland in 1918 to learn the art of whisky-making.

AN HOMAGE TO THE FATHER OF JAPANESE WHISKY

Masataka Taketsuru's adopted son, Takeshi, created this whisky in honour of his father to showcase the art of blending that Masataka valued so highly. The current release in the Taketsuru range contains a higher proportion of Yoichi than previous releases which adds a rich and earthy edge to the whisky and reflects Nikka's traditional flavour profile.

BEST ENJOYED NEAT OR IN A CLASSIC MANHATTAN COCKTAIL

Best enjoyed neat to fully appreciate the full complexity and layers of flavour from this tribute to the art of blending. This whisky is also perfect in a classic Manhattan cocktail.
