BOLD AUSTRALIAN SINGLE MALT WHISKY

Starward Fortis is a bold and flavourful single malt whisky from the Starward Distillery in Melbourne, Australia. Fortis – the Latin word for brave and bold – was given as the name of this whisky due to its rich and complex flavour profile and higher bottling strength, balanced by Starward's signature smoothness.

FULL BODIED WITH NOTES OF VANILLA, RAISINS & TOASTED OAK

This whisky is aromatic and full bodied, with notes of vanilla, raisins, and toasted oak, along with demerara sugar, plums, and caramelised figs. The palate displays decadent chocolate, cinnamon, and banana bread, finishing with a touch of smooth caramel and a peppery tang.

AGED IN BAROSSA VALLEY WINE CASKS

Fortis is fully matured in American oak barrels that previously held shiraz and cabernet wines of the famous Barossa Valley, imparting a spice-led, vanilla character to the whisky. The whisky is blended in small batches to showcase the unique character of each barrel, whilst retaining its core flavour profile.

A DISTINCTLY AUSTRALIAN WHISKY

Starward was born out of a simple vision: to create a whisky that reflects Australia's unique character. All ingredients are sourced within a day's drive from the distillery; the barley comes from Victoria and South Australia and is malted in Geelong. Melbourne's notoriously variable climate also affects maturation, with temperature swings of up to 12.5°C in a day, ageing the whisky in 'Melbournian years.'

CREATED WITH INNOVATIVE PRODUCTION METHODS

Renowned for their innovation, Starward represents a new generation of whisky makers, with many of the production choices borrowed from craft brewing – brewer's yeast is used for complexity, and a darker malt is chosen to deliver more biscuity characteristics and a luscious mouthfeel.

BEST ENJOYED NEAT

Starward Fortis is best appreciated neat or with a few drops of water, but also works well in a whisky-forward classic cocktail such as a Manhattan or Old Fashioned.
